

REPORTED SPEECH - VIDEO - SAMPLE DIALOGUE

Emma: Hi, Rose! How was the trip to Italy?

Rose: Hi, Emma! It was fantastic! I really had a good time! Italy is the most beautiful place I have ever been to in my life! I'm very happy that I went on this trip.

Emma: Tell me everything about it! Where did you go?

Rose: We visited a lot of places. We went to Rome, Venice and Florence. I wanted to go to Pissa too, but we couldn't go. I promise I will visit it in the future!

Emma: Wow! That sounds great!

Rose: We also saw a lot of interesting monuments. In Rome, we saw the Colosseum and the Trevi Fountain. They were so beautiful! In Venice we travelled by gondola and went to the Piazza San Marco. And in Florence we saw the David, by Michelangelo.

Emma: So, did you enjoy your trip?

Rose: Yes! It was great! You must come next time!

Hanna: Hi, Emma! Have you talked to Rose? Is she back from Italy?

Emma: Yes, I saw her last Saturday.

Hanna: And what did she say? Did she enjoy the trip?

Emma: She said that the trip had been fantastic and that she had had a good time.

Hanna: That's nice. So did she like Italy?

Emma: She told me that Italy is the most beautiful country she had ever been to in her life and that she was very happy she had gone on that trip.

Hanna: Wow! Now I'm jealous. Did she tell you anything else?

Emma: I told her to tell me everything about it!

Hanna: So, what cities did she visit?

Emma: She said that they had been to Rome, Venice and Florence. She told me that she wanted to go to Pissa too, but that they couldn't. But she promised that she would visit it in the future.

Hanna: Oh, that's OK, then. And what did she do in all those places?

Emma: She said that they had seen a lot of interesting monuments. She told me that in Rome they had seen the Colosseum and the Trevi Fountain and that they were so beautiful. She also said that they had travelled by gondola in Venice and that they had been to the Piazza San Marco. And she told me that in Florence they had seen the David.

Hanna: Wow! That's wonderful!

Emma: I asked her if she had enjoyed her trip and she told me that she had, that it was great and that I had to come the following time.
